

Again, and especially today, BE ON THE LOOKOUT FOR HOAXES, FRAUDS AND OTHER APRIL FOOL'S STUFF.

The Wisconsin student found yesterday appears to be in good condition. Her captor is still at large. We'll keep Jeff Goldblatt on the story.

The pictures shown in the Times and NY Post today of the dead American contractors are exactly what we chose NOT to use yesterday. Please don't get sucked into this taste race to the bottom.

The US military has said its response to the Fallujah massacre will be measured but forceful. Be prepared to get on this when it happens.

Majorie Alexander, the girlfriend of Peter Gotti of mob fame, was found dead with a plastic bag fastened around her head. Our own button man, Eric Shawn, tells the tale of the duct tape.

The President signs the Unborn Victims of Violence Act, also known as the Laci and Conner law. We'll take the ceremony and POTUS's remarks.

Kerry is out of action today because of his shoulder surgery.

Why does it take so long for military absentee votes to be mailed and are they being counted in national elections. Jim Angle has looked into this and has an interesting take on what could be a crucial segment of the electorate.
